

Furniture and Accessory Showrooms

Donghia Furniture

The wooden legs of Donghia's sophisticated New York tub chair are inspired by the profile of the Empire State Building. Casters or swivel base are also options where mobility might be important. Shown with Donghia Textiles, now in Dania at DCOTA. Circle No. 399

Donghia Furniture

Summit Furniture

A recent Roscoe winner in "casual furniture" was Kipp Stewart's Aperture Collection for Summit Furniture. Oiled and stained for indoor use, it's offered by Jerry Pair, Miami Design District, and by Bruce L. Robertson, Atlanta Decorative Arts Center. Circle No. 402

Summit Furniture

Erwin-Lambeth, Inc.

Designed by Ronnie Brahm, these stylish slipper chairs in white lacquer, chipped or chalk white finishes. At factory showrooms in Thomasville and now DCOTA; also through Fran Murphy at the D&D Centre of The Palm Beaches. Circle No. 391

Erwin-Lambeth, Inc.

Tropitone Furniture Company

Tropitone's Veneman Collection of cast aluminum casual furniture is ideal for restaurant interiors as well as for residential use. Featured by Showroom 84 in both the Miami Design District and in West Palm Beach, where it's now at General Mica's showroom. Circle No. 400

Tropitone Furniture Company

Accents

Pit-firing, a primitive method of firing pottery handbuilt from fine-textured white clay, makes for a multitude of shapes. Accents, at West Palm Beach's D&D Center, also features such accessories as artifacts, artworks, crystal, china and lamps. Circle No. 378

MDI

Cabinet maker Peter Zuchi's "Art Incrusta" designs include wood solids inlaid into other solid wood, a rare technique and tradition. Among the modern interpretations seen at Peter Mandel, in Miami's D&D's Plaza I, is this Rubin pedestal table by MDI. Circle No. 372

Accents

MDI